

FAVORITE THING ABOUT
TEACHING AT MIT
Working with our great
students and student athletes

BRIAN BUBNA

AT MIT SINCE 2009
Coaching football
Teaching boot camp for athletes,
weight training, and squash

ADVICE FROM FUTURE SELF
Investing in yourself
is always a smart use
of time and energy

FAVORITE PIZZA TOPPING
Banana peppers and soppressata salami

EDUCATION
B.A. Hobart & William
Smith Colleges
M.S. Northeastern

Brian Bubna started his MIT career as an assistant football coach in 2009; in 2018 he was named the team's head coach and began teaching Physical Education. Brian graduated with a degree in Media & Society from Hobart & William Smith Colleges and received a Masters in Sports Leadership from Northeastern University. He enjoys playing squash, biking, weight training, fishing, and gardening in his free time. Brian's best vacation was a 10-day road trip that started in New Orleans, continued along the Gulf Coast, across Florida, and north along the Atlantic Coast, ending in Charleston, South Carolina.