

LONI BUTERA

15 YEARS WITH MITPE Teaches Middle Eastern Dance

LIKES TO DO FOR FUN
Swim in the ocean and walk on the beach

ADVICE FOR FUTURE SELF
Keep Dancing!!

FAVORITE BOOK
The Da Vinci Code

EDUCATION & TRAINING
Internship or "industriekauffrau" in Germany

Loni Butera has been teaching Middle Eastern dance for over 20 years. She started teaching at MIT 15 years ago and loves to teach MIT students who enjoy having fun and trying something new. Loni began her training in Germany in 1987 and has since travelled countries like Turkey and Morocco to continue to explore the art of Middle Eastern Dance. Outside of dancing, one of Loni's favorite things to do is spend a day reading, walking and swimming at the beach.