

PIECE OF ADVICE

Keep working hard and don't stress. Things always work out in the end!

Vazrik Chiloyan

AT MIT SINCE 2012

Instructing the MIT Shotokan Karate Club and teaching Karate

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering

FAVORITE EXTRACURRICULAR

Running, swimming,
and weight lifting

Vazrik Chiloyan has been instructing the MIT Shotokan Karate club for over 4 years and has been teaching Karate in MITPE since 2012. In addition to teaching, Vazrik is also a PhD student here at MIT. In fact, he completed his bachelors and masters degrees here as well. Currently Vazrik studies in the Mechanical Engineering department and we can expect him to be “Dr. Chiloyan” by 2017. Outside of MIT, Vazrik enjoys all different types of physical activity for recreation. Some of his favorite things to do are running, swimming, and weight lifting. One piece of advice from Vazrik: Keep working hard and don’t stress, things always work out in the end!