FAVORITE PART OF TEACHING AT MIT

The interaction with the students

Chad Martinovich began teaching weight training, ice hockey, and boot camp for athletes in 2008 while also acting as Head Coach of MIT Football. He enjoys interacting with students and seeing such passion and drive. Martinovich has over 20 years of involvement in physical education, instructional activity, and health and wellness. He completed his undergraduate work in History at Hobart College and his master's in Curriculum Development and Instructional Technology from University at Albany. Martinovich believes that it is amazing what you can accomplish if you believe in yourself and stay positive. He enjoys vacationing at the beach and spending time with his family.
